

Pete has a birthday and has to open the Piñata the old fashioned way.

Tet is now a US Citizen. And we cheered her on.

Caroline gave me a car for my birthday. But it was in MN. So I visited with Phil & Family, and Liz and Family on the way back home. And I did get from Denver to home in 18 hours. It's a very fast car..

We spend more than a bit of time with Dave & June. And it's never boring. Even when Dave is playing spoons and singing Salsa tunes.

I took an extended bike trip to SoCal. And visited with Judy & Family. They may be latent bikers too!

Karen Gunderson graduated with a masters from Berkeley.

We skied at Telluride for a week. Caroline reacted to the altitude in an interesting way.

Happy Holidays From Greg, Caroline & Alek

I turned 40! Bob & Verna Koss joined us for the evening festivities.

We got to spend time with Judy & Ted & Family for Memorial Day Weekend in Monterey.

Peter E. had a dinner party. I must have done something really nice..

Cheryl, Barb, and Holly entertained us at various times this year with their terrific moves. And Jessica supported their lovely efforts.

You really have to like someone a lot to visit them in Phoenix in August - And we sure like Ken & Sherry!

My Ultimate Cool Grandma turned 85, and we had a really good party. They came to stay with us after the party. Grandpa Alex passed away shortly after this event.

Tet & Brian had their birthday parties together in June. And there was lots of Karaoke..

We spent Easter with Caroline's family. Laura dressed up a bit for the occasion and Jeff showed us the proper way to eat cherries. But Eric seemed to have the essential skills for the holiday on display.

While we were in Phoenix Adriana and I did some bonding.

We went skiing with June and Dave. Caroline was more than a little pooped at the end of the day.

This was our entry into Rob's Pumpkin Carving Contest. The next day this pumpkin got carved and Alek popped out.

Dan and Terrie hosted an Apres-Thanksgiving event while Barb was visiting.

Eric and Veronika had twins. Here are the two bellies at their baby shower.

We spent a week at Mammoth with Lisa 'cause I needed a playmate. Caroline was much too pregnant to do anything active.

Mel and I did some bonding at Donna's Beach Volleyball party.

Isn't Alek a cute little pumpkin??

Gayle & Family came by to see Alek.

We spent Thanksgiving with Caroline's family in Saratoga. My Grandma joined us for the delicious event.

Alek and I take our morning naps together.

Phil and I got to run around the wilds of northern CA together and visit Evie.

I had to help Brian deal with the loss of his bachelorhood via houseboat and other assorted festivities.

Alek has been very social since he was born. His Great-Grandma and Great Aunt Carla came to see him along with quite a few other friends and family.

We had our annual White Elephant party. Rob got Kermit and Robin got some new underwear. We can't wait to see her model it for us!

June & Nancy threw a baby shower for us. Highly non-traditional to say the least. Check the web site for the story on those bonnets.

Tet and Brian got married. Caroline was the Matron of Honor, and very pregnant at the time. Dave subbed as dancing partner when needed and Caroline never knew she had been turned into a Piña Colada by June.

We got to go sailing with Paul and Barbara on the Bay.

Karen helped Lisa celebrate another fine birthday.
