

I got to see Emma get Bat Mitzvah'd. And Mikey was there too. It's a special joy to spend time with Mikey these days.

We celebrated Laura's graduation in fine style in San Luis Obispo. Caroline had a lot of memories of the place too, from long ago..

Alek is able to get his Grandpa to jump with joy at the beach with the Kelp jumping rope.

The Viking Princess came to visit again. Always a good time when she's in town.

We went to NY to celebrate Mara's Bat Mitzvah. Alek got to terrorize his cousins with much enthusiasm. And charm his Grandparents a little too as well as his Great Grandma Ethel. And we got to spend some time with the extended family as well.

Alek took to the slopes again in fine form.

Alan & Gail came to visit. Alek taught Alan how to fish on the Wii. There was much merriment.

We celebrated Easter at Dick & Sharon's. It must have been Hat Day too.

I had another BD. Alek decorated the cake. And some friends helped me celebrate.

We went to Steve & Maria's for the Fourth of July. Who knew there was a sale on rotator cuff surgeries!? Lots of fireworks on the beach - A pyro paradise if ever there was one.

Mikey's got a Wii too! And there's nothing better than playing with Mikey, except maybe drinking beer!

My other Jim got married too. Must be something in the air this year.. We thoroughly enjoyed being unencumbered at a nice party.

Happy Holidays

Are we late for 2009 or early for 2010...?
Some events from the past year
From Greg, Caroline & Alek

Alek played soccer. Mostly in the goal.

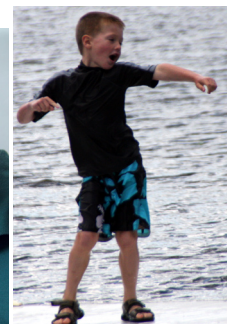

Jim got married. We got to join the festivities. Alek tore up the dance floor with or without his Mother. It was a joyous occasion for everyone.

We visited NY, MA, and Philly over the summer. We connected with Mikey & Mark & families. Got a rare visit with Liz too. We hiked the MA hills. Alek discovered the pure joy of a dock and a lake in the summer. Brin and Aaron get their Duck on for the tour. We also went to Independence Hall, The Liberty Bell, and The National Constitution Center. On the flight home Alek got WiFi & Club Penguin.

Ethel came to stay for a month. Everyone had a very nice time. Paula came up to visit. She and I took our puppies to the beach one day. Mine got a lot wetter and sandier..

We went to Mammoth with Judy & her family. We visited the hot springs, hiked, biked, fished, and celebrated Sarah's among other things.

Alek turned 7. We had a party, and another party, and another party.. Sounds normal to me! And there was that magician and a rabbit somewhere in there.

We had another Koss-Moss Reunion. Mostly Kosses converged on Moss Landing. David brought Caryn who seemed to adapt pretty readily to all those Kosses.

The CA tribe gathered for Thanksgiving at our place again. The traditional TG Soccer game commenced. Caroline and Karen showing they've still got it with mid-air high fives. Much food and drink disappeared surprisingly quickly.

We enjoyed Chanukah with Eric & Pam at their house. They're trying to get Alek into the tribe by letting him do the candles.

We went to Jim & Nicole's Housewarming Party. They're still deliriously happy after being married for a few months. Bodes well for the future..

The annual White Elephant & Brunch Party happened again. Some really silly "gifts" got exchanged for better or worse. A pile of omelettes and other delicacies disappeared in a crowd of happy people. Tet & Brian came up from LA with Darwin who is almost ready to run with the pack of kids that storm around all day. It's a great annual get-together for us to see people we don't see enough during the year.
